

GOOD HOSIERY

BLACK CAT HOSIERY stands for this. Stockings for Boys and Girls, with triple knees; in heavy cotton and fleece lined—25c Per Pair.

T. B. WOOL HOSE for children. Every one tells us the BEST they have used.

25c and 35c Per Pair.

BLACK CAT HOSE for Ladies, cotton and lisle—15c, 25c, 35c and 50c per pair.

WOOL—35c, 50c and 75c per pair.

McCallum Silk Hosiery the Best.

THE M. M. WYKES CO.

2335 Washington Ave.

STANDARD TELEPHONES

For Editorial, News and Society Department, Call Only Phone No. 421.

For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 55.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Advertisers must have their copy ready for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.

At Third Ward—L. Dow Browning will be the speaker at the evening meeting at the Third ward tomorrow night. A good program of music has also been arranged for and the meeting will begin at 7 p. m.

At Once—Good, clean, soft rags at the Standard Office. Highest prices paid.

Quorum of Seventy.—All members of the 160th Quorum of Seventy are requested to meet promptly at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, November 9, at the Fifth Ward meeting house. This is the regular annual Seventies' meeting day and every member of the quorum should be present.

The Telephone Girls will give their annual Blue Bell Club Dance Thursday, November 20, at the Colonial Dancing Academy.

Old Mats for sale at Standard office. 25 cents per hundred.

Manda Will Recover.—Frank Manda, who was shot by J. G. McFadden in Rochester, N. Y., last Tuesday, will recover, according to information received in Ogden yesterday by his mother, Mrs. Louise B. Manda. The first report that reached Ogden was to the effect that Manda was fatally wounded and, as a result, his mother was prostrated.

First-Class Auto Service.—Call up Elite Cafe, Phone 72.

High Priests.—The regular monthly meeting of the high priests' quorum of Weber stake will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, in the Second ward meeting house. W. A. Morton of Salt Lake will be the speaker.

Dr. H. B. Forbes has resumed practice at 2478 Washington Avenue, opposite Broom Hotel.

Salt Lake Guests.—Miss Geneva Black and Miss Gene Lovell of Salt Lake are the guests of Miss Bernice Seaman, daughter of George Seaman, city recorder.

At Once—Good, clean, white rags at the Standard Office. Highest prices paid.

Writing on Thrift.—Many of the students in the junior high schools are engaged in writing essays on thrift to be submitted to the American Society for Thrift which has headquarters in Chicago. The society has offered liberal prizes for the best definition of thrift and also for the best story of practical thrift. The bulletins of the society were sent by Superintendent J. M. Mills several days ago. When sent to the schools, the principals and teachers explained the idea and the students accepted the proposition with interest.

Old papers for sale at the Standard Office. 25c per hundred.

Canada to California.—Advices have been received in local Union Pacific offices to the effect that through Pullman service is to be established between Winnipeg, Canada, and Los Angeles, Cal. The service will be in effect during December, January and February and it is believed that travel to California from that point will be increased considerably. The entire distance will be made in 31 hours and the route will be over the "Soo" lines, Northwestern, Union Pacific and Salt Lake routes.

WANTED.—Green Fruit Trees in four foot lengths. $5.00 per cord. Odeau Packing & Provision Co.

Danielson Estate.—In the matter of the estate of Mary Danielson, deceased, the administrator, A. P. Renstrom has petitioned the district court for a final settlement of the estate and for distribution.

B & G Butter is pure and sweet. No other kind should you ever eat.

From Jackson Hole.—N. B. Eckbo, forest examiner, has returned from a three months' trip to the Jackson Hole country, where he has been estimating and marking timber.

Returns Home.—After spending a few weeks at Moab and vicinity making a general inspection, District Forester E. A. Sherman has returned home.

Solicitors to Meet.—Today Solicitor F. G. Gaffey of Washington and Assistant Solicitor R. F. Feagans of this city are in Salt Lake making preparations for the meeting of the solicitors of the various forest districts, which will be held in the capital city next week.

Marriage License.—A marriage license has been issued to Edward L. Black of Omaha, Neb., and Lucy Smith of Leavenworth, Kansas.

Goes to Arizona.—Captain J. H. Adams, assistant forester to Henry S. Graves, after spending a few days in Ogden, will leave this afternoon for Arizona.

Allen Estate.—In the estate of Louise C. Allen, deceased, the administrator, Samuel Allen, has petitioned the district court for letters of administration. The petition relates that Mrs. Allen died intestate at Huntsville, October 8, 1913, leaving an estate valued at about $1600.

Canyon Cars.—The canyon cars will be operated to the Hermitage tomorrow every hour, beginning at

PICK FLIES UP AND STRIKES A MAN IN AN AUTO

C. M. Day, a guest at the Reed hotel, sustained a rather forehead this afternoon in a most peculiar manner. The automobile in which he was riding along the Riverdale road, ran over a pick and the chain of the wheel flipped the implement, the metal point striking Mr. Day between the eyes. Although he was stunned, he was not seriously injured.

Day, with W. A. Fisher, a produce broker, and Mrs. Fisher, left Ogden at 1 o'clock today for a trip to Utah. At the city limits, however, Mrs. Fisher declared the roads to be too muddy for pleasant riding, so she returned to the hotel. The two men retained the back seat in the car. At a point near Riverdale on the county road it was necessary for J. H. Chapple, the chauffeur, to turn to the side of the road, because of improvements that are being made. As the auto moved along the side, the pick was thrown into the car.

The auto returned to the city and the injured man was attended by Dr. G. W. Baker at the latter's office.

ANSWER AND COUNTER CLAIM ARE FILED

In the case of the First National bank against the American Construction company and William Glasman, the defendant, William Glasman, has filed an answer and counter-claim in which he alleges that the note upon which the plaintiff company is suing was signed by him as surety without consideration on his part, and simply as an accommodation.

The defendant states in the counter-claim, however, that as a matter of indemnity the company turned over certain machinery and other property at the South Fork damsite to Mr. Glasman and that he has used 150 pounds of cement valued at $213.94, and 50 yards of gravel valued at $24, which amounts, Mr. Glasman requests, be applied as part payment of the note. The face value of the note is $5000. The property turned over by the American Construction company is enumerated and made a part of the answer and counter-claim.

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Five.)

CHARITY BALL TO BE HELD NEXT FRIDAY

The Martha society will meet Tuesday for the consideration of financial arrangements for the annual charity ball which will be given Friday evening, November 14, at the Colonial hall. The committees are carrying out plans for the most elaborate society event ever given by these ladies. The hall will be decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season and a fine musical program provided.

A large number of distinguished people are on the invitation list, among them being the governor and staff and many leading Salt Lake people, also other out-of-town guests. In Ogden all of the prominent families will be present to enjoy the pleasures provided and to add to the benefit fund these ladies put to such good use each year. In the coming winter months many poor families will be given necessary assistance and warm clothing and shoes provided for the little ones by the Martha society, the members justly feeling that the efforts put forth are amply repaid by the knowledge that time and money have been well spent in a good cause.

Broad plans for the ensuing year have been laid out by the Martha society and no sacrifice will seem too much in order to see the needy or distressed relieved.

The funds obtained from the annual ball together with all other funds used during the year are carefully tabulated and reported that all may know the good stewardship of the organization.

SPEAKS AT CONFERENCE

Apostle James E. Talmage and Brigham H. Roberts will be the principal speakers at the Ogden stake conference tomorrow when meetings will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. The Tabernacle choir will furnish musical selections.

MISS SEPPICH ENTERTAINS

Miss Esther Seppich entertained charmingly last evening at her home, 2835 Hudson avenue. During the evening the guests were entertained with cards and music. Shortly before the midnight hour, a delicious supper was served.

Among those present were the following: Misses Ethel Thomas, Leona Pearson, Leona Purdy, Edna Monson, Pearl Williams, Nina Handley, Inez Thompson, Esther Seppich, and Elizabeth Seppich, and Fred Summerhill, Roy Burt, D. J. Greenwell, Ervin Ford, Frank Jagers, Alfred Larson and Claude Seppich.

TELEPHONE GIRLS' DANCE

Next Thursday evening has been the time set for the Telephone Girls' Blue Bell club dance and the affair is being looked forward to with happy anticipation. The telephone girls are charming entertainers. Crawford's orchestra will be engaged to furnish dance music and delicious fruit punch and wafers will be served. Decorations for the Colonial hall have not yet been decided upon.

FIFTH WARD W. C. T. U.

One of the most delightful and intensely interesting meetings of the Fifth Ward W. C. T. U. was held yesterday with Mrs. Q. B. Craft, Central president, Mrs. W. S. Flavelle, called the meeting to order by scripture reading and prayer, followed by a piano solo by Mrs. C. S. Kingsbury. Mrs. C. W. Hadley read

Wright's

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Sale Starts Monday November Sale of Suits for Men

Tomorrow is the first day of The November Sale of suits for men. During the November Sale of suits for men we offer the cream of the best stock in town, at lowered prices.

The selling begins at nine o'clock Monday morning in Wright's New Clothing Store—entrance may be had from the street, or through the Big Store.

The fact that we sold all of our old stock at our recent Rummage Sale, makes this event an offering of nothing but this season's handsomest suits.

Positively; Wright's Values Are Always Honest Values

You must use a good deal of "horse sense" in deciding where you will buy your clothing. A printed list of comparative prices, means so little, unless one has the merchandise before them. A price which appears cheap in the printed page, might not appear so cheap when the merchandise is examined.

So that in this sale we will not confuse you with a lot of printed prices, but will ask you for the opportunity to show the splendid, guaranteed values first—and then let us quote you the November Sale prices.

Wright's New Men's Store

ENTRANCE FROM STREET OR FROM BIG STORE.

Wright's

ENTRANCE FROM STREET OR FROM BIG STORE.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

a paper entitled "What Is the Relation of My Union to the Advance of Civilization," which was prepared by Mrs. C. A. Root of Salt Lake, and received much merit when read at the last state convention. A lively discussion on the subject was followed by a piano solo by Mrs. Craft.

Mrs. T. M. Montgomery was present and gave a graphic picture of her work in prisons, her trip east, and of her visit to various penitentiaries. She had on display several articles made by the prisoners at the penitentiary in Salt Lake. Mrs. Montgomery's talk was much appreciated and members of the W. C. T. U. will make it possible for her to continue her excellent work.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Craft, assisted by Mesdames Kingsbury, Hadley and Cook.

OGDEN VISITOR.

Miss Clara Dickey, clerk in the Evanston postoffice, will spend a few days in this city before leaving for Montpelier, Idaho, where a short visit will be spent with friends.

FROM EVANSTON.

Mrs. Louise Gutting of Evanston, Wyo., is an Ogden visitor. She will spend a few days in Salt Lake before returning to her home.

MAYOR OF MOAB HAS FAITH IN HIS HOME CITY

H. W. Baisley, who is in the city for a few days, and who was on Tuesday last elected chairman of the board of trustees of the town of Moab, a position corresponding to that of mayor, had a trying introduction to Utah. He invested in and moved from Indianapolis, Ind., to the Valley City Irrigation enterprise, nine miles south of Thompson Springs. The project contemplated the reclamation of 12,000 acres of good land on the Thompson-Moab road by the construction of a dam approximately 5000 feet long and thirty feet high, which would impound 12,000 acre feet of water from melting snow and spring rains, and occasional summer downpours. The dam was not built to withstand the pressure, however, and was washed away in two places. The orchards and fields which had been started died for lack of water, and the entire colony moved away. With sufficient capital and good engineering, Mr. Baisley still considers the project feasible.

"Moab," said Mr. Baisley, "is very fortunate in its large stores, which are yet far ahead of the development of the country, when we consider that Grand county has as yet but 1500 population, and San Juan 2000, nearly a fourth of whom are Indians. Our homes, too, are being equipped with city conveniences. I might mention that of D. M. Cooper of the Indian Creek Cattle company, since Mrs. Cooper, a sister of Mrs. Frank M. Briggs, is a former resident of Ogden. This home is equipped with modern bathroom, hot and cold water, and acetylene lights, while Nava-lo rugs and basketware keep these delicately toned to the primitive conditions by which the town is surrounded.

It is gratifying to know, also, that Moab merchants, though near the Colorado line, use Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo as their base of supplies.

The Grand Valley Times, of which Loren L. Taylor is the editor, the only newspaper in the two counties, is a great factor in keeping the community wide awake. The newspaper is owned by a corporation, and its business, after meeting the salaries of employees and expense bills, pays 10 per cent on the investment."

IMAGINATION AND BASEBALL. Lord Northcliffe, the English publisher, notwithstanding that he was in the United States during the world's championship series, has astonished and pained eastern newspapers by the statement that, while baseball is a pretty good game and one which he highly enjoys, the people of this country do not take any wonderful amount of interest in what we call our national sport. Indeed, he marveled at the relatively small crowds which assembled to witness the world's series.

He was thinking, beyond doubt, of the enormous crowds, which turn out in England to witness one of the great soccer football contests. He has seen on frequent occasions 120,000 to 150,000 people assemble in England to witness one of the championship football games, and besides such a crowd the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

the 20,000 or 40,000, the extreme limit that can be accommodated in the largest baseball parks in the country, doubtless does seem small.

What he does not take into consideration, however, is the great number of people in this country who, through the possession of vivid imaginations, can get almost as many thrills and nearly as keen enjoyment out of watching the games as played by the electrical devices before each newspaper office, with the megaphone accompaniment, as they could from the seat in the distant bleachers. The whole American crowd, which follows the baseball games in this manner could not be accommodated on any tract in the world, so that each spectator could get even a distant view of the players.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Mme. Curie.

This is the first picture to reach America showing Mme. Curie, the world's foremost woman scientist, in her laboratory in Paris. Mme. Curie with her husband was the discoverer of radium. Recently she was awarded the Nobel prize, and she is now a candidate for membership in the L. Institute, the French college for scientists.

Deaths and Funerals

PEARCE—Funeral services over the remains of Edward Pearce will be held tomorrow at 1 p. m. from Larkin & Sons chapel, Bishop H. C. Jacobs officiating. Remains lie in state this evening at the chapel and tomorrow from 9 until 12:30 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. F. Dinmore, 929 Twenty-fourth street. Interment Ogden City cemetery.

FOLEY—Funeral services for Bartley Foley will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the residence, 2332 Jefferson avenue. Casket will be open at the home this evening and Sunday until time of services. Interment Ogden City cemetery.

SHUPE—Funeral services for Peter R. Shupe will be held at 12 noon tomorrow from the Fifth ward instead of 1:30, as previously announced.

WADMAN—The remains of Ellen Wadman arrived at the Linquist chapel at 10:30 a. m. today. Funeral services will be held from the Third ward tomorrow at 2 p. m. Bishop Van Dyke officiating.

TAKE KINDLY TO WOODEN SHOES

In this country beech is the favorite material for wooden shoes. The manufacture of which has reached considerable proportions in the United States, according to the Department of Agriculture, which has just issued a bulletin on the use of the wood. These shoes, the department says, cost from 60 to 75 cents a pair and are good for two years. They are worn by those who have to work in cold and wet places such as tanneries, breweries and livery stables, and by workmen in steel mills and glass factories, who must walk on hot grates or floors. Farmers, too, are classed among the users.

Beech wood is put to a very much wider range of uses than the average person would be likely to suspect. The department says beech enters into hundreds of articles from hobby-horses to rollers to butchers' blocks. We walk on beech floors, eat off beech picnic plates, carry beech baskets, play with beech toys, sit on beech chairs, and in dozens of other ways use articles made of beech almost every day of our lives. Its freedom from insects fits the wood especially for articles which come in contact with foodstuffs, and beech meat boards, skewers, lard tubs, butter boxes, sugar hogsheads, refrigerators, dishes, spoons and acorns are widely used.—Forest Service Bulletin.